¹If you reasonably believe you have an emergency medical condition, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency department. An emergency medical condition is a medical or psychiatric condition that requires immediate medical attention to prevent serious jeopardy to your health or the health of your fetus. For the complete definition of an emergency medical condition, please refer to your Evidence of Coverage.

²These features are available when you receive care at Kaiser Permanente facilities.

³You must be 18 years or older to schedule.

⁴Check with your doctor's office to find out if video visits are available to you.

Urgent care

An urgent care need is one that requires prompt medical attention, usually within 24 or 48 hours, but is not an emergency medical condition. This can include minor injuries, backaches, earaches, sore throats, coughs, upper-respiratory symptoms, and frequent urination or a burning sensation when urinating.

Visit kp.org to find the urgent care location nearest you.

Emergency care

A life-threatening injury or illness that requires care right away.¹

- Trouble breathing
- Severe chest pains
- Very bad injuries or wounds

If you think you have a medical or psychiatric emergency, call 911 or go to the nearest hospital.
